Drive Kimberly Avenue and know that history doesn't always repeat itself as you approach this work of elegance that can't be copied. Built in 1933 this distinguished home was designed by the illustrious architect of the Grove Arcade, Charles Parker for Harry L. Parker. Original features inlaid with tasteful, ornate, modern accents will leave you in awe of this piece of property stamped in time. With sprawling views of Sunset Mountain, Grove Park Inn & golf course (a nod to Donald Ross) one can simply recline or partake in all of Asheville's nearby excursions.
